Around Which Will Circle the Civic, Social, Business, and Political Life of the City

During its 90 years, the Genetti Hotel has been the site of thousands of banquets, balls, benefits, dinners, luncheons, conventions, concerts, and meetings for the civic, social, business, and political organizations of Williamsport and surrounding cities, as well as for state and national organizations. Headquarters for the Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club, the Retail Merchants Association, Kiwanis, Lions, Advertising Club, the Community Trade Association, and Little League, the hotel has hosted luncheons and dinner meetings as well as special events for these organizations for decades.

The annual New Year's Eve Ball and Card Party was the height of several holiday seasons before the Depression and after World War II. Reservations for the 1923 ball were limited to 400, at a cost of $3.75 per person. The 10-piece hotel orchestra under the direction of Frank Desio provided the music. Other social events include the Dahlia Exhibit of the Williamsport Garden Club held in the ballroom in 1924; the Williamsport National Dinner Club, which hosted national and international literary and political figures seven times a year, the Williamsport Choral Art Club's "An Evening of Opera"; Williamsport High School reunions; and testimonial dinners for such local luminaries as J. Roman Way and Dietrick Lamade.

IT'S A TREAT TO DINE AT THE LYCOMING

The Chef Says --

"It's All in Knowing How,"

The preparation of food requires an intimate knowledge of culinary art. Ignorance in the kitchen may spoil any dish and make it unpalatable.

Much of the Good in Food Is Lost Through Lack of Knowledge and Adequate Equipment

Unless you are an accomplished cook, you can gain only a small idea of what a sunny antidote to a sluggish appetite a well-cooked meal is.

It Strikes the Keynote of a Bright and Happy Day

Normal appetite demands good food, because working, growing bodies must have its muscle-building material.

It's a Privilege to Be Hungry and Eat Here!

We are equipped with every resource of skill, knowledge, and unexampled practical experience. Our source of supply, facilities, and organization are such that we are able to supply you with the kind and quality of food you will like best.

Special Christmas Dinner

A special Christmas dinner will be served on Christmas Day between the hours of 12 o'clock noon and 2:30. The same special dinner will be served on the evening between the hours of 6 and 9 o'clock. This special dinner is $2.00 per plate. There will be a special musical program during the service of dinner both at noontime and evening, and the dining rooms will be decorated appropriately for the occasion. Make your reservations early.

We try to make our guests feel that they are genuinely welcome and that their patronage is appreciated. When in Williamsport make the Lycoming your home. The best, finest, and most modern and the cost is no more than all the others.

Management,
John F. Letton

Our Chef Is a True Food Artist

That's the prevailing opinion of those who have habitually eaten here. And you, too, will appreciate the pleasurable and tasty form in which our food comes to you, particularly those famous Holiday dishes.

The proper flavoring, the right kind of seasoning - all go to make our meals most palatable. But it's not alone what we serve you that makes dining here so attractive - it's the way we serve you, as well as the moderate prices.
